6

GENERATIONS

Watching my daughter develop a love of gardening and nature has been wonderful - a particular highlight has been the sunflowers. Planting her seeds, waiting patiently for the blooms, seeing if they are taller than her and then collecting the seeds to plant again next year. As a teacher I wish all children had access to such an opportunity.

Tahmena

Photo by Tahmeena

BDAC
Serving Birmingham's Allotments